

HIPAA Training

All graduate student clinicians receive HIPAA awareness training before beginning their first semester in clinical practicum and thereafter on an annual basis or within a reasonable period of time following any material change in the Clinic's policies or procedures, whichever is earlier. Written documentation of the training sessions is on-file in the Communication Disorders Clinic office.